

SVS
Spring Virtual Conference
Monday 11th May 2026

2.00pm	Welcome and opening address – Phillipa Page, SVS President
2.10pm – 3.10pm	Keynote speaker - Prof. Mark Hutchison, Adelaide University Pain, Paddocks and Paradigm shifts: Livestock neuroscience in the wake of opioid epidemic Chair –
Tea/coffee break
3.30pm – 3.50pm	Pam Brown MRCVS, Alnorthumbria Vets Sheep Meets – A Success Story in the Northeast
3.50pm - 4.30pm	Panel on Lambing Times Practices – how do we measure up? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fiona Lovatt FRCVS, Flockhealth Ltd • David Rendle BVSc CertEM(IntMed) DipECEIM MVM FRCVS, specialist equine vet and sheep farmer • Tim Geraghty BVMS FHEA MVM DipECBHM MRCVS, farm animal practitioner and consultant Chair –
Tea/coffee break
5.00pm – 5.30pm	Timothy Connelley, The University of Edinburgh, The Royal (Dick) School of Veterinary Studies Why isn't there a vaccine for.....?
5.30pm - 6.00pm	Rob Kelly MRCVS, The University of Edinburgh, The Royal (Dick) School of Veterinary Studies Update on Sustainable control of Haemonchosis in UK livestock grazing systems: FAMACHA card training for vets, farmers and SQPs Chair –
6.00pm	OGM – Phillipa Page, SVS President
6.15pm	Close the meeting

To register to attend the virtual conference, please contact Hazel at the office on 0131 445 6045 with your card details or e-mail secretariat@sheepvetsoc.org.uk

Members	£ 25.00
Non- members	£ 35.00

For members wishing to join the OGM only please inform secretariat@sheepvetsoc.org.uk and we will provide a link to the OGM so you can join without payment

Thank you to our industry sponsors

